CRAB ORCHARD.

Mrs. Kittie King is having a fine trade in millinery.

The teachers association will have a meeting at Crab Orchard next Saturday.

Dr. J. D. Pettus is having a two-story ell put to the old Garnett property, and will move into same when completed.

Miss Daisy Potter, a handsome brunette of Manchester, was married to Mr. T. G. White, of Winchester, at the residence of C. A. Redd, Jr., Wednesday morning. They left the same day for Winchester, where the groom has a home prepared for his handsome bride. Mr. White is a druggist of that city.

Joe Brooks, the hustling drummer, made a visit to the homefolks. Rev. A. M. Lambert is in Bluefield, W. Va., on business. Mr. and Mrs. Wadkins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, all of Campbellsville, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Stapp at the school. Mr. Sim Middleton, Jr., left last Tuesday night for Bluefield, W. Va., where he goes to accept a clerkship in the hardware store of S. P. Gray & Co. We wish him success.

(FROM AN OTHER CORRESPONDENT.)
Politics is warming up at Crab Orchard.

Mr. Smith Baker has a black smith shop in Mr. J. H. Collier's building.

The town is having quite a lot of gravel hauled on the pikes that extend through Crab Orchard.

Dr. J. D. Pettus has bought the old Garnett house and is having it extensively repaired with a view to moving into it as soon as completed.

The ladies of the Baptist church are making up a fund to repair the church and hope to have the work completed in time for the meeting that is to be held this month by Rev. G. W. Perryman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stephens go to Livingston Dec. 1st to take charge of the Mullins Hotel. Miss Mayme Skinner, of Bryansville, is the guest of her cousins, the Misses McClure. Mrs. Mary Slaughter is confined to her bed now most of the time with lung trouble.

Mr. J. S. Duke, who is buying up hoop poles here for a Michigan firm, has bought 20,000 up to date. He expects to get 500,000 at Crab Orchard, and will employ men to dress them ready for use before shipping. He has now three hands at work and expects five or six more in the next few days. This will help the people in and around Crab Orchard considerably.

BOBBITT IN LEXINGTON.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)
LEXINGTON, Nov. 2.—As it has been a long time since your many readers have heard from me, I shall write a few lines from the Athens of America. I am here attending circuit court, employed in a very important will case. If the will is broken the court may allow me $1,000. If not my fee will be so small that unable to get out of the first depot, frozen fast by penury's chilling blast, I may remain an exile from my dear old home till I am sent for by admiring friends.

Lexington has expanded a good deal since I was here in 1886. I saw many of the gallant sons of Mars, among whom his beau ideal as well as the ladies' idol, Hon. W. C. Owens, who claims it as an honor that he served with me in the halls of legislation in 1885-86. Mr. Owens is a perfect Apollo of manly beauty. Most of the other soldiers, whom I saw, were quite small, some not much more than a 100 pounds, but all chivalry. Before I got as far as the Phoenix, I saw two fights and while we waited for the streets to be cleared of combatants and the large crowd of admiring spectators, I remarked to a gentleman standing by: "I wish I were in Harlan! Well court will convene in a few minutes and I shall have to close. Shall be back Friday to attend Crab Orchard police court Saturday, and Stanford big court Monday."

Hurrah for the United States and the Southern Confederacy one and inseparable now and forever!

FONTAINE F. BOBBITT.

THE BEST PLASTER.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

There are now over 250,000 words in the English language, acknowledged by the best authorities, or about 70,000 more than in the German, French, Spanish and Italian combined.

Richard Croker, the Tammany boss, is going to bet $300,000 on Van Wyck's election.

Three out of every 135 English-speaking people have red hair.

MT. VERNON.

There will be services at the Christian church next Sunday. Bro. Ira M. Boswell officiating.

Hon. George G. Gilbert will speak here next Saturday. The democrats are enthusiastic for Gilbert.

A Christian Endeavor Convention will be held at Livingston, 19-20. Mrs. Arthur Scott will attend as a delegate from here.

There is an interesting Methodist meeting in progress at Brodhead. A number of converts request baptism by immersion, which occurs today. Mr. E. E. Protheroe was in town yesterday.

Pat Welsh has moved to Louisville, where he will reside in the future. Rev. L. N. Ison conducted Methodist services here last Sunday. Mrs. Anglin, of Brush Creek, is ill at Dr. Pennington's. The boys of the 2d Kentucky are at home, having been mustered out. The recent exposure to the rain and cold was not conducive to health, but they will soon recuperate in the sweet atmosphere of home.

Mrs. Archie Robertson, of Danville, will give an entertainment here on the evening of Nov. 23rd. Friends of the Christian church are especially invited to help make this a success; so begin now to make your arrangements to attend.

It seems that the mania for going to Jellico to marry still holds sway as Mr. James Houk and Miss Sallie Adams proved last Saturday night. They were accompanied by Mr. Ed Cocks and Miss May Miller, the latter being the aunt of the bride. The young bridal couple have taken rooms at the Miller House, where their many friends will be pleasantly received.

What is more charming after viewing the busy scenes incident to town life than to visit friends in the country, where all is peace. Though the fields are brown and the forests are decked in gorgeous autumnal tints, though the birds may not sing as gayly as in spring time, yet "There is a pleasure in the pathless woods," where the brown leaves rustle and the squirrel reigns supreme. Such thoughts flitted through our mind last Saturday as we accompanied our friend, Miss Carrie Lair, to her beautiful home, West of town, where the courtesies, for which Judge Lair and his noble wife are noted, were extended to us.

Mrs. Pettit is quite ill at Mr. Stapp's. Miss Mary Colyer is recovering from a severe attack of throat trouble. Editor Maret went to Crab Orchard on telephone business Wednesday. Mrs. Sam Davis has been very ill. There are several vacant houses in town. Gov. Bradley will speak here next Monday. Hon. John W. Yerkes spoke at Livingston Tuesday night. Dr. Lawrence has resumed the practice of medicine here. Mrs. Dr. S. C. Davis has been quite ill, but is recovering. Capt. Spradlin and Mrs. Maggie Thompson are visiting relatives here. Postmaster Baker expects to move into his new house next week. The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. W. M. Poynter this week.

(FROM AN OTHER CORRESPONDENT.)

G. W. Fagan, railroad agent at Pine Hill, aged about 72, was found dead in bed Thursday morning in the depot at that place. It is thought heart disease was the cause of his death. He was one of the five survivors of the Lopez Cuban expedition of 1850. He had no relatives in this State.

Wednesday afternoon at Pine Hill, John Meadows shot and instantly killed Clate Mathews and mortally wounded John Mathews. The difficulty came up over some school notices, which Meadows had tacked up, and it was alleged that Mathews had torn them down. The weapon used was a shotgun loaded with buckshot. Meadows has been teaching the public school at Pine Hill and is a married man. The Mathews were unmarried. Meadows came to town and surrendered and is now under guard.

The independent telephone companies of Kentucky, held a meeting at Crab Orchard on Wednesday and organized the Kentucky Telephone Association with the following officers: A. H. Bastin, president, Crab Orchard; Jno. S. Van Winkle, Danville; E. T. Fish, Berea, and A. D. Shottwell, Somerset, vice-presidents; James Maret, secretary, Mt. Vernon; and F. P. Combest, treasurer, Phil. The object of the association is for the improvement and extension of the service in this State and the mutual benefit and protection of its members. Most of the companies in the State were represented in the meeting and much interest was manifested in the subjects discussed. An improved and extended service is promised at an early date. The next meeting takes place at the St. Asaph Hotel, Stanford, Dec. 6th.

The Kentucky Oil and Pipe Line Company has drilled 20 miles of pipe between Slick Ford and Somerset and has completed about 10 miles. The company expects to have the line completed by January 1. The Pipe Line Company has purchased several acres of land in Somerset and will commence at once to erect tanks.

A seven-year-old child of William McCoy was burned to death in a straw stack near Taylorsville. The father is in the Garrard county jail awaiting trial on the charge of murder, committed nine years ago. The child, with five others, was playing in the straw stack and it is supposed that they set it afire.

Santaneli, the hypnotist, will give a parlor recital at the residence of Miss Katie Lee Yeager, this Friday, afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church, says the Advocate. Admission 10 cents. A number of young ladies have consented to be hypnotized on this occasion.

Lancaster business men are organizing a stock company to build a hotel and opera house. They will probably be joined by the K. of P. lodge, which will have a castle hall in the new building. The hotel will be a modern, three-story building, of 35 rooms, and will cost about $15,000. The building will occupy the site of the old Miller hotel.

A MODEL PROCLAMATION.

Thursday, the 24th day of November next, is hereby set apart as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. Given under my hand and seal of office October 31, 1898, and the 107th of the Commonwealth.

WILLIAM O. BRADLEY,
Governor of Kentucky.

The transport Panama, which left Santiago Monday for the States with 300 passengers, is thought to have been wrecked by a hurricane in the Windward passage Tuesday night. Pieces of wreckage have been picked up, and among them eight pieces marked "Panama." She was a prize of war and unit for sea.

Vernon Clark, of Winchester, and Harvey Berryman, formerly of Woodford county, are the leading stockholders in the Arizona Ostrich company, at Phoenix, Arizona. They paid $10,000 for 100 ostriches and $1,500 for their farm.

A solid train of 23 cars of spirits has just been shipped from Peoria, Ill., to Japan, sold to the imperial government to be used in the manufacture of smokeless powder in the government works.

Bacteria multiply very rapidly, and they do it in a very curious way. A single one breaks itself in two; then each half grows until it becomes as large as the original.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

The residence of George Mountjoy, near Lawrenceburg, was burned. Loss $4,000.

Thomas Rogers, of Bloomington, Ill., has six dead wives and will marry again before Christmas.

W. E. Bradshaw and Miss Grace Butler, two of Columbia's most popular young people, were married Wednesday.

Because her husband would not take her to the exposition, Mrs. John Cassidy burned herself to death at Pittsburgh.

In Africa wives are sometimes sold for two packages of hairpins. In America there are wives who would be high even at that price.

William Meadows, who married an army nurse from Louisville, has secured his release from the hospital service to enjoy his honeymoon.

The Adair County News says that J. R. Hildman has a sassafras tree in his yard which is 3½ feet in diameter. It is said to be the largest in the State.

Miss Pearl Jones came all the way from Guthrie, Ok., to marry Lt. D. B. Jones, of the 1st Territorial regiment, stationed at Lexington, and they were united Tuesday.

The much abused and greatly misunderstood mother-in-law is at last being recognized at her full worth. Three instances of men marrying the women who bore that relation to them have occurred in as many states in as many days. Ohio furnishing the last, when Robert Smith took his mother-in-law to wife.

Rev. Donald McDonald, synodical minister of the Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Mary Allen Weisiger, daughter of Cashier W. H. Kinnaird, of Lancaster, were married at his residence in that city Tuesday by Rev. W. O. Goodloe. The happy pair left at once for Louisville where they took a boat for St. Louis and from there will go on an extended Northern tour.

Miss Adelia Blauvelt, of New York, was recently wedded to Private Bill Anthony. It will be remembered that Anthony was on the Maine when she blew up, groped his way to Capt. Sigbee's cabin and said: "Sir, I have the honor to report that the ship is blown up and is sinking." For his coyness he was promoted to the rank of sergeant. Miss Blauvelt read the account, and wrote Anthony a letter congratulating him on his gallantry. A correspondence ensued, and the quondam Miss Blauvelt is now Mrs. Anthony.

Great Britain's preparations leave France little room to doubt that if the Fashoda incident should lead to blows, John Bull will strike hard. At every British naval station throughout the world, British warships are stripping for action and taking on full supplies of coal and ammunition.

Adam Hammer, of Beaver Dam, Wis., became suddenly insane Tuesday, and securing a gun wounded nine men and was finally shot himself to prevent his doing further injury. He was employed in the machine shops of J. S. Rowell.

A fastidious maid rejected a lover named Child because his name was too suggestive. Her next lover was Mr. Triplett and she rejected him because his name was three times as bad as that of her previous lover.
